St. Louis Trust Adds Two New Managers

We are excited to announce we have welcomed two new managers to our team: Garrett Blair and Adam Kerschinske. Both will work with client teams to deliver exceptional client service.

Garrett left his hometown in Saskatchewan, Canada to attend Lindenwood University where he earned Bachelorâ€™s and Master of Science degrees in Finance and where he also competed on the NCAA Division II golf team. He later worked at Anheuser-Busch in corporate finance.

Adam studied Finance and Banking at the University of Missouri.Â Following graduation, he worked for a short time as an Advisor at Northwestern Mutual. He then joined Matter Family Office as a Financial Consultant. Adam is involved in the local community as a junior board member of the Make-a-Wish Foundation.

We are looking forward to the many contributions we know they will make to their teams and to our firm.
